

JUDICIAL PROFILE

Cheryl Hendrix is currently assigned to the Civil Court Department. She has previously served in the Family Court and Criminal Departments. She has the longest tenure of any of the female judge's on the Superior Court Bench. Judge Hendrix graduated from Arizona State University in 1967 with a B.S. in Finance. She was admitted to the charter class of the A.S.U. College of Law and acquired her J.D. in 1971. After graduation, she practiced for ten years with the Phoenix firm of Hill & Savoy. She was named by Superior Court's then-Presiding Judge Robert Broomfield to be a court commissioner in 1981. She was appointed to a Superior Court judgeship in 1981.

Photograph not available

Judge Hendrix, in addition to her courtroom duties, has been active in both legal and community affairs. She has served on the Publications Committee of the Judicial College of Arizona. She served on the Superior Court Commissioner Selection Committee, the Building and Security Committee, and the Court Reporters and Interpreters Committee. She was a Board member of the A.S.U. Law School Alumni Association from 1981 to 1984 and participated in judging mock trials for the Arizona Center for Law Related Education in 1985, 1987, and 1988. In May, 1985, she was honored and recognized as a "Woman Who Govern." She is a former member of the National Association of Women Judges and has served as a faculty member for the Arizona College of Trial Advocacy. She is currently on the Board of Directors of a non-profit school for children with multiple learning challenges.